Dear Mr. Bell:

RE: Application for Recertification of Continuing Education Elective Course
"A Legal and Ethical Career in Real Estate"

Your application for recertification of the above-referenced course as continuing education elective course has been approved. The course is recertified for twelve (12) real estate continuing education credit hours effective January 1, 2017. The certification is subject to student attendance and completion of the entire course.

The course certification is enclosed and expires on December 31, 2018. You may apply for renewal of course certification on or before that date.

The elective course may be offered for continuing education course credit, provided: (1) the course is offered through a continuing education provider currently registered with the Commission; and (2) the instructor for the elective course meets the Commission's requirements for continuing education instructors.

Please be reminded that continuing education providers, administrators and instructors are responsible for keeping the elective course continually updated with the most current materials and information, including the latest applicable laws and rules. Failure to do so may result in suspension or revocation of the course certification and the provider registration.

The Real Estate Commission requires the inclusion of the following language (or some other similar language) on the first page of the course material, using at least 10-point bold face type print:
